Insist Huerta End Silliman Mystery

Administration, Tired of Procrastination, Sends New Demands That Mexican Dictator Reply at Once-Vigorous Movement of Army Supplies Goes On.

New demands went from this Government to Huerta today in the cases of the missing American vice counsel, John R. Silliman, and missing orderly, Samuel Parks.

These urgent orders, it developed today, are the culmination of a series of daily demands upon the dictator through the Brazilian minister at Mexico City for Silliman's release and for information regarding Orderly Parks.

These demands have been without result. They were renewed today in a spirit that shows the Administration is tired of Mexican procrastination.

Not a word regarding either man was contained in State Department dispatches early today.

Around the State and War Departments, the belief grows that Parks has been executed, while officials are inclined to think that Silliman is still under suard at Saltillo, contrary to Huerta's promises for his release.

Because of the uncertainty regarding Silliman's fate and the mystery yet surrounding the disappearance of Orderly Samuel Parks, Photographer A. J. Sutton, of Washington, and Correspondent Dobster, the vigorous movement of supplies to Galveston is considered signifi-

It may be necessary to serve another time ultimatum on Huerta demanding that the fate of the quartet be cleared up within a few hours.

Relations With Carranza. Except for what may develop from the Italian protest of the alleged holding for ransom by the rebels of an oil manager, the most cordial relations exist apparently, between Carranza and Secretary of State Bryan. The former has gone out of his way to permit the oil operators at Tumphico to reopen their reant, and Mr. Bryan has been willing, apparently, to let by somes be bygones regarding the sinying of the Englishman Benton, the still unexplained disappearance of the American, Bauch, and the expulsion of the Spaniards from Torreon—all acts which, in the past, caused much concern to the Washington Government.

With much show of setisfaction, the Administration made public this morning the substance of a report from Hear Admiral Mayo at Tampico to the effect that the constitutionalists have restored order in the captured town, and have permitted American representatives of the oil companies to and and opened their wells.
